DEPRESSED CLASS COLONIES OF HERBERTNAGAR AND SHANMUKHAPURAM—NUMBER OF HOUSES IN

208. Mr. K. R. Viswambharan (Ezhuvas-Talappalli): Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) the number of houses that existed in the Depressed Class Colonies of Herbertnagar and Shanmukhapuram in the beginning of 1115 when a survey of the colonies was made by the Protector ;

(b) whether any family or familes of depressed classes have since evacuated from the above colonies ; if so, how many families from each colony ;

(c) the number of houses at present occupied in each of the above colonies ;

(d) if answer to (b) is in the affirmative whether the Protector has made any enquiries as to the reason for such exodus from these colonies ;

(e) whether any attempts have been made to attract those families back to the respective colonies ; if so, what ;

(f) whether any representations have been made to the Government by the inmates of any of these colonies complaining that for want of proper attention the colonies are in a ruined condition ?

Dr. A. R. Menon (Minister for Rural Development):

(a) Herbertnagar 83, Shanmukhapuram 34.

(b) Yes. Herbertnagar 10, Shanmukhapuram 6.

(c) Herbertnagar 63, Shanmukhapuram 28.

(d) Yes. He has made enquiries. Some have left in search of work elsewhere. Some have left to avoid part of their duty for a common life.

(e) Yes. The depressed classes have been persuaded to come and live in the colony houses.

(f) No.
